Singapore Travel Essentials

Sunday, 05-DEC-2021 - Saturday, 11-DEC-2021

A cosmopolitan atmosphere, remarkable skyline, brilliant engineering structures, astonishing gardens, magnificent landscape, and heavenly shopping centers that will warm every fashionista's heart. Singapore is one of the hottest vacation destinations today, for all the right reasons. Relatively small in size but full of attractions, the "Garden City" successfully assimilates its green vision.

This, without compromising on preserving the past or generating super-modern eco-friendly skyscrapers. This blending of the old and the new creates a unique combination of a developed country that did not abandon its Asian traditions and roots.

Join me to reveal Singapore's treasures, landmarks, museums, temples, shopping paradise, entrancing parks, colorful streets, and hidden gems. Discover famous sightseeing as Changi Airport, Gardens by the Bay, the Sentosa Island which offers exceptional watery adventure, the rustic 70's look-like island Pulau Ubin and so much more.

Attractions' Tickets

It is recommended to buy tickets to the main attractions in advance. Not only because they are very popular but also due to the Coronavirus restrictions.

We provide an option to buy tickets via GetYourGuide which offers the best prices with free cancellation.

Clarke Quay

Clarke Quay is known for its vibrant nightlife with ebullient bars, clubs, and restaurants. However, there are plenty of things to see and do in this area during the day as well. For example, you may enjoy a refreshing river cruise, visit the fascinating Asian Civilisations Museum, see Cavenagh Bridge which is one of the antique bridges in Singapore, stroll at Fort Canning Park and view the Chinese temple, Hong San See.

Bugis and Kampong Glam

Bugis and Kampong Glam are two nearby neighborhoods that are full of stores, shopping malls, and plenty of places to eat at affordable prices. Kampong Glam is considered Singapore's Muslim quarter and contains mosques and many Middle Eastern cuisine restaurants. Both neighborhoods are a vibrant bazaar of clothes, perfumes, rugs, food and so much more. Both neighborhoods have a hipster-chick, bohemian atmosphere, and a few wonderful colorful streets that are perfect spots to take photos and selfies and share with others by social media.

Pulau Ubin

Pulau Ubin (Granite Stone in Malay) is a lovely island with 60's -70's rustic characteristics that contain very few residents and is a wonderful day trip for nature lovers. Visiting Pulau Ubin will make you feel like you are inside of a nostalgic postcard from the past. This island is very different than modern Singapore, therefore it is advised:

- Take comfortable walking shoes
- Bring a bottle of water and some snacks
- Ensure you have enough cash (there are no ATMs at Pulau Ubin)
- Have mosquito repellent
- Rent bicycle (with a lock) for easy trip navigation

Changi Airport

Considered the best airport in the world and one of the busiest, Changi Airport is itself a thrilling travel adventure. If you have the time before leaving wonderful Singapore, dedicate some time touring the many attractions of this exceptional airport that offers almost anything, from massage, cinema, art installations, gardens, playgrounds, innovative architecture, waterfalls, shopping, and so much more.

1 Marina Barrage

Singapore

09:00 - 11:00

Singapore is a true joy to all architecture lovers, with a combination of functional structures and exceptional design. Marina Barrage is exactly such a kind of combination, a dam that provides flood control and water and is also a recreation hub. The solar park provides water sports activities, a stunning view, and is a lovely spot to start your first travel day in amazing Singapore.

2 Gardens by the Bay

18 Marina Gardens Dr, Singapore 018953

+65 6420 6848 Web Site

11:30 - 15:30

Gain international fame for its unique design, Gardens by the Bay is a must-see park while in Singapore. The Park has 3 main gardens: Bay Central Garden, Bay South Garden, and Bay East Garden. All our magnificent and full of flowering and the beauty of mother nature.

Bay South is the largest garden of the three and contains one of Singapore's most famous icons, the Supertrees that no visit in Singapore is complete without seeing them. The view of the Supertrees, especially at night, with all the lights that shine in the dark, is a spectacular experience. You may also visit the Supertree Observatory and try the OCBC Skyway, maybe the best vantage point in Singapore, a 128 meters skywalk between two Supertrees. The Bay south also includes the Flower Dome, with blooming that is a true wonder and a real celebration of colors.

Bay East Garden, which is smaller than Bay South, yet larger than Bay Central, is also a true joy. Bay East will provide you with a lovely view of the Singapore skyline and a quiet place to wander and relax, surrounded by the beauty of nature. Bay Central connects Bay South and East, with entrancing 3 kilometers waterfront promenade.

Other fantastic attractions at Gardens by the bay that are very much worth visiting are:

The Cloud Forest - contains vegetation from all over the globe and one of the largest indoor waterfalls.

Dragonflies and Kingfisher Lakes - 440 meters boardwalk with lakes view that provides a glimpse to kingfishers and dragonflies which are inseparable from the Gardens ecosystem.

Floral Fantasy - in Floral Fantasy you will find colorful suspended bouquets and unique flowers designs. Located right next to Bayfront MRT station, Floral Fantasy seems like it came out of a fantasy dream of nature lovers.

14:30 - 15:00

A majestic mosque with glorious golden onions domes and an impressive prayer hall that can contain up to 5,000 believers, Sultan Mosque is a must-see while in Kampong Glam. The Mosque, also known as Masjid Sultan, was built in 1924 by Sultan Hussain Shah, who ruled Singapore. The Construction ended 2 years later, however facing the time damages and the need for a better place for the growing Islamic community, the present-day Mosque was inaugurated in 1928. Except for its inspiring sight, the building reflects a spiritual and humanistic view of equality. The dome's base has been made out of glass bottles, donations of the unprivileged, and a symbol that all, poor or rich, are welcome in the Mosque. Praised for its magnificent architecture thenceforth, the Mosque receives the prestigious status of Singapore's National monument in 1975.
